Awakening the dragon

Brandon Grosvenor, left, VP of advertising sales at the Toronto Sun, Mary Liu, first VP of the Toronto Chinese Business Association, association president Benny Cheung and Cyril Lai of Ming Pao Daily News dot the eye on the dragon at Sunnyside Beach yesterday to highlight the 22nd Telus Toronto International Dragon Boat Race Festival. More than 160 teams involving 5,000 participants from around the world are expected to compete in the event, to be held on Centre Island, June 18-20. The Sun is a sponsor of the fest.

Gardiner closed for cleaning

The Gardiner Expressway is getting a good spring cleaning this weekend.

Drivers will be out of luck if they want to take the waterfront route from 4 a.m. Saturday to 4 a.m. Monday.

City crews will close all lanes in both directions from the Don Valley Parkway to the Humber River.

Workers will be cleaning catch basins, working on the Jameson Ave. bridge, installing a barrier wall, repainting pavement markings, and sweeping up litter.

On Thursday, city officials announced they'd expand the Gardiner closure Sunday, with all westbound lanes of the expressway from Islington Ave. to Hwy. 427 shut down.

Crews will close the section of road from 6 a.m. to midnight Sunday to complete road resurfacing originally scheduled for Thursday night.
